Coach Fred C. Pierson Dies Unexpectedly in Hospital in Columbus

Fred C. Pierson, 46, who coached Washington C. H. High School football teams in 1941, 1946, 47, 48, 49, 50 and 51, died in University Hospital in Columbus at 1:35 A. M. Tuesday following an operation. Coach Pierson, who always had typified the acme of physical ruggedness, had been ill only about two weeks.

Coach Fred C. Pierson

First intimation that his health was not all that it had been came with fainting spells. Shortly after that he was taken to the hospital for surgery.

He was born in Clinton County and was graduated from Wilmington High School in 1926. After a year at Wooster College, he returned to Wilmington and was graduated from Wilmington College in 1930. During his high school and college days he was outstanding as an athlete, especially in football. So, after graduation from college with a degree in education he entered the teaching profession and devoted most of his unbounded energies to coaching. His first position was at Tiltonsville High School in Harrison County. He remained there for five years before going to New Boston in a similar capacity for four years.

AFTER A YEAR at Upper Sandusky, he came to Washington C. H. in 1941 as head football coach and reserve basketball coach. He also coached baseball and track, but there was less emphasis on these two sports then.

The following year, he enlisted in the Coast Guard and served until December of 1945 when he was discharged with a commission of lieutenant commander.

Out of the service after the second World War, he came back to Washington C. H. to pick up right where he had left off. He stayed here then until 1951, when he resigned to go to Marietta High School as head coach and athletic director. He has been there ever since.

Supt. Glenn C. Parker of the Marietta Schools said in a telephone conversation Tuesday morning when told of Coach Pierson's death: "With Mr. Pierson's passing, we have all lost a friend and faithful worker. He devoted his life to the welfare of boys and bent his every effort to building strong bodies and wholesome character. We were strengthened by his presence."

While he was the head coach of the football teams, Coach Pierson left behind memories of a much broader work and service.

HE WAS the idol of literally hundreds of young people, both boys and girls. They admired his forthright attitude with them and he held their deepest respect. Gruff though his voice may have been at times, they saw beneath the surface a man of stout heart that

Indiana Airplane Crash Kills 9

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Nine Chicago persons were killed today when their twin-engine plane crashed in a rainstorm on an Indiana farm across the river from Louisville, Ky.

The Lockheed plane owned by the Crane Plumbing Co. of Chicago was carrying executives of the firm to a plumbing and heating convention in Louisville.

The craft was only a few minutes away from Standford Field in Louisville when it nosed down and crashed into the muddy field.

H-Bomb Test Slated For Wednesday

BIKINI (AP)—Unstable weather which has repeatedly postponed the United States' big H-bomb test, appeared to be settling today with a possibility the blast could come off Wednesday afternoon (U. S. time).

The bomb is to be dropped from a B52 jet bomber over Namu Island of Bikini atoll.

There's nothing like a circus for kids.

And here are a couple of stories I got such a laugh out of that I can't resist passing them along to you.

Early Monday evening, a boy 6 or 7 years old rapped on the door of a home in Sunnyside. When the lady of the house (she asked that she not be named) answered it, he asked her: "Do you want to contribute to the drive?"

With deep understanding that only a mother can have of a boy of that age, she told him there were no fund-raising campaigns on here now and that she could not make any contribution.

A look of disappointment spread over his face as he asked: "Well, how am I going to get to go to the circus?"

Just in case you had forgotten, the Mills Bros. Circus was on the Washington C. H. Speedway lot Monday.

Although the mother touched by the boy's ingenuity and disappointment, she restrained her natural inclination to give him the money; she felt it would not be good for him if she let him get away with his private fund-raising campaign, important as the circus is to any boy.

Now the other story: One of our carrier boys laid a paper down on a desk late Monday afternoon. Someone asked him: "How was the circus?" He replied with nonchalance of a 10-year-old: "O, it was OK."

Everyone laughed at his blase attitude and then as he started out the door he said: "But I'm going back tonight."

Nebraska Poll Today Testing Ike, Kefauver

Party Primaries Seen Indicating Any Change In Men's Popularity

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nebraska residents vote today in a primary election that assured presidential preference victories for President Eisenhower and Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Eisenhower is unopposed in the Nebraska GOP presidential preference balloting and Kefauver had the field to himself on the Democratic side. Write-in votes are permitted, but no organized appeal has been made for them.

Any rural dissatisfaction with administration farm policies could appear in a marked variation from the usual 2-1 Republican margin in recent primaries, but even Kefauver's supporters said they expect no such results.

The preference voting is not binding on the 18 Republican and 12 Democratic convention delegates to be selected.

In Wyoming, Democrats yesterday elected a 14-vote delegation to the national convention. Eleven delegates with 5½ votes said they favored Averell Harriman for the presidential nomination.

ELEVEN OTHER delegates said they were undecided, four said they are for Kefauver, one was for Adlai Stevenson and one for Sen. Symington of Missouri. None of the delegates was instructed by the convention. Each has half a vote.

Harriman, who made the keynote address for the Wyoming convention, repeated that he is not an active candidate for the nomination, but said "I'd be mighty proud" if people of Wyoming wished to support him.

Wyoming Republicans elected a 12-man delegation to their own national convention, all supporters of an Eisenhower-Nixon ticket.

In Oregon, Stevenson said he was not surprised to hear of Harriman's statement. "I have understood that he was a candidate since his announcement last October," Stevenson said, apparently referring to Harriman's oft-repeated statement that he is "not an active" candidate.

Stevenson was campaigning for votes in Oregon's May 18 primary election, in which he is opposed by Kefauver for Democratic write-in votes. Both men are scheduled to appear on the same platform in Eugene, Ore., tonight.

Speaking in Hillsboro, Ore., Stevenson last night renewed criticism of administration farm policy and of Vice President Nixon.

Nixon, he said, becomes "increasingly embarrassing" to the GOP, "and I would not be surprised if they will have found means of extricating themselves from his embrace." Democrats have been concentrating on what they term unethical campaign tactics by the vice president.

Kefauver, a California, renewed his own criticism of the government security program, noting he said the legislation went far beyond what he considered reasonable. Nixon was a senator Kefauver yond actual needs.

SOVIET MILITARY SLASH WORTH 'CAUTIOUS LOOK'

New, Tighter Liquor Freeze Being Sought

State Board Told Carryout Permits Should Be Curbed

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio Liquor Director William C. Bryant today proposed broadening of a new liquor freeze to include beer and wine carryout permits.

The state board of liquor control opened a hearing today on a new and permanent freeze regulation to replace the one ruled unconstitutional March 21 by the Ohio Supreme Court.

The proposed new regulation fails to include carryout permits and Bryant said in advance of the hearing:

"As the regulation now reads, the sky would be the limit on carryout permits."

The director proposed a carryout permit limit of one for each 2,000 population. That is identical with the proposed limit on permits for the sale of high-powered beer and wine on the permit premises.

The board is hurrying through the legal formalities on the new freeze regulation in an attempt to insure that it will become effective by May 29.

THAT IS THE expiration date of an emergency freeze invoked March 29 at the behest of Gov. Frank J. Lausche. The emergency regulation is good for only 60 days and cannot be renewed.

After the public hearing today and the board's almost-certain approval, the regulation must be filed with the secretary of state. After that, there is a 10-day waiting period before it can become effective. If any person who believes the regulation "adversely affects" him appeals it to a common pleas court, however, effectiveness of the new regulation will be held up until the court action is disposed of.

Such a development would leave only the liquor permit quota system established in the Liquor Control Act itself to hold down the number of permits.

Only about 1,000 hard-liquor permits now are in force in Ohio. Bryant says that under the statutory quota system it might be necessary to issue 6,000 to 7,000 more.

The statutory quota is one hard-liquor permit to each 2,000 population except in cities over 50,000 where the ratio is 1-to-15,000. The proposed freeze would fix the limit at about 1-to-3,000.

In a letter to the board, Bryant pointed out he and his staff had no opportunity to study the proposed permanent freeze regulation until it had been adopted tentatively by the board.

Dulles Sees Little Change In Soviet Military Power

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today Russia's proposed armed forces cut would not appreciably alter Soviet military power. But he said the United States welcomes it insofar as it indicates a policy of abstaining from the use of violence in international relations.

At the same time, two U. S. Air Force leaders testified the announced Russian cutback will not reduce Soviet air-atomic power or the means of increasing it.

Both Secretary of the Air Force Quarles and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chief of air staff, told a Senate appropriations subcommittee that the United States should exercise the greatest caution toward changing any of its own plans as a result of Moscow's announcement that 1,200,000 men will be cut from Soviet forces.

Secretary Quarles said that apparently only 30,000 of the announced Soviet reduction are in airborne divisions.

Chairman Chavez (D-NM) had asked whether the Soviet announcement would make any change in Air Force requests for funds for the fiscal year that begins July 1.

The answer to that was no. Twining said the requested $16½ billion for the next 12-months was an "austere budget," that more money could be spent.

BUT HE SAID it will result in having "137 wings on board although some facilities will be short but the wings will be there in position."

Twining said initial Air Force requests were for about $20 billion but this had been trimmed with an understanding that requests for the 1958 fiscal year would be larger.

Twining said the Soviet announcement may be an indication that the Russians "are trying to encourage peace in the world" but added:

"We should be careful to look at it from all angles."

Secretary Quarles said the Soviet move may be "a belated new look at their military forces."

Quarles said very little is actually known of details of the Soviet arms program, and said this country should be careful not to disclose too much of its defense program.

Sen. Young (D-ND) suggested the United States should "not put too much reliance upon the figures that the Russians put out."

Quarles agreed. Dulles contended that the 1,200,000 men who are to be taken out of uniform, according to the Moscow announcement, may readily be put to making nuclear weapons. The Kremlin announcement therefore does not provide a basis for reducing U. S. armed strength, he said.

Anyway, Dulles reminded, this country has cut its forces by more than nine million men since World War II—from a level of 12,300,000 to less than 3,000,000.

A reporter said Dulles seemed to imply he would rather see the manpower continued in uniform.

Dulles said that in fact he would rather have the Russians standing around doing guard duty than making atomic bombs.

Civil War Vet Is 110 Today

Virginian To Don Old Uniform, Smoke Cigar

FT. BLACKMORE, Va. (AP)—This tiny southwest Virginia town basked once more today in the reflected glory of an old, old man.

It was the 110th birthday of John B. Salling, one of four remaining Civil War survivors.

Given good weather, the genial, black-haired old soldier expected to don his Confederate uniform, clamp a cigar in his mouth and go to the front porch in his wheel chair to greet the friends and well-wishers who usually drop around on his birthday.

And there was one thing you could bet on. He would be wearing a hat.

Salling attributes his jet black hair to wearing a hat and never washing his hair.

The "General," as he's known to his friends, still has good eyesight, but his hearing is poor.

He can't get around by himself any more, but he retains a hearty laugh, still smokes two or three cigars a day and eats well.

The presents for Salling today included a Confederate shirt to go with his uniform and a 10-gallon hat. The uniform was given to him several years ago. The shirt is a gift of Virginia Gov. Thomas B. Stanley; the hat was sent by the Texas Rangers.

SALLING'S WAR service was limited to digging salt-peter, which was used in the manufacture of gunpowder.

However, nobody dares belittle his service. The old Rebel asserts that he was in a company commanded by Capt. Lon Collins, and that he dug salt-peter for Gen. Robert E. Lee himself.

Salling is one of three surviving veterans of the Confederate Army. The others are William Allen Lundy of Crestview, Fla., and W. W. Williams of Franklin, Tex. The only surviving Union Army veteran is Albert Woolson of Duluth, Minn.

Veteran Con Gets Freedom From Prison

CLINTON, Ill. (AP)—An elderly convict with a prison record in six states and three foreign countries dating to 1910 won his freedom yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus he wrote himself.

James P. Duty, 68, said he wasn't "mad at anyone" after Circuit Court Judge Grover W. Watson upheld his writ and ordered him released from Menard Prison.

The white-haired and frail Duty, described by Warden Ross Randolph as a "very egotistical man who hated to be contradicted," composed the writ himself and wrote it out in longhand.

Duty was sent to Menard nearly two years ago for parole violation, the third time in five years he had been jailed on the same charge.

Randolph said Duty claimed to have been a lawyer but he said he doubted it "because he was in prison on and off again for the last 46 years and wouldn't have had time to go to law school."

Duty contended Illinois lost jurisdiction when he was paroled and voluntarily extradited to Virginia in 1934 after serving five years on a one-year to life sentence for burglary and larceny. Duty was arrested in 1929 near Wayneville, Ill., while driving an allegedly stolen car.

He was wanted in Virginia, where he escaped from prison in 1919 after serving a year following his conviction for burglary and larceny in Richmond.

Bank Robbery Trial Due Tomorrow

COLUMBUS (AP)—Trial of two men charged with robbing the Pickerington Bank in Fairfield County of more than $17,000 Oct. 1, 1954, is scheduled to open in federal court here tomorrow.

A third man who pleaded guilty to bank robbery charges in connection with the same case is expected to appear as a witness.

Richard C. Williamson and Joseph Sanders are the two scheduled for trial. John W. Lane, who last March changed his previous plea of innocent to one of guilty, is scheduled as a witness. Lane has not yet been sentenced. He was returned to Ohio Penitentiary last December as a parole violator, and since that time has been in a federal penitentiary.

Senators See Some Chance Of Sincerity

Sen. George Doubts Red Move Should Be 'Hastily Dismissed'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) today cautiously described as a possibly encouraging development Russia's announcement it is slashing its armed forces by 1,200,000 men.

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the announcement "ought not to be hastily dismissed without careful evaluation."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said he favors a "wait and see" attitude until "we can determine if Russia is really sincere." Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) commented that "Russia again has seized the initiative." And Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said the Eisenhower administration had been outmaneuvered. All three serve on the Foreign Relations Committee.

The Russians said the announcement of 1,200,000 men does not include 640,000 demobilized last year. And they added all the reduction will be in effect by next May 1.

THE MOSCOW statement said the Soviet Union is "trying to make a contribution to disarmament." It challenged the United States, Britain and France to "contribute to the strengthening of peace" by following Moscow's example.

The United States, at least, is expected to reject Russia's suggestion that it trim its armed forces further.

The Soviet move came as no surprise to officials here.

Secretary of State Dulles is known to feel it would be unsafe for the Western Powers to try to match Russia in any manpower reductions.

His argument is based on a premise that the West needs long lines of supply and communications while the Russians are set up with short lines in areas of potential conflict.

The Soviets now have roughly 4½ million men under arms as compared with 2,849,695 for the United States.

Senators Wiley (R-Wis.) and Humphrey interpreted the Soviet move as a new effort to weaken the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and as a possible blow at the administration's $4,900,000,000 foreign aid program.

George, who yesterday formally accepted Eisenhower's offer of a post as personal ambassador to NATO, said of the Moscow statement:

"It is impossible to tell what the Soviet leaders may mean by this announcement."

"IT IS TOO early to accept the conclusion that they have made any changes in their basic program which free people have long understood."

"However, the move toward the reduction of armies is encouraging and ought not to be hastily dismissed without careful evaluation. We shouldn't let our guard down, but we ought to be quite willing to make a careful examination which will take time."

Russia has announced its goal of overtaking the U. S. industrial potential within the next 10 to 15 years. Such a program will require all the manpower it can muster. Furthermore, Soviet agriculture has suffered severely from the drain of peasant youth into the armed forces.

The military cut also bolsters the Soviet propaganda drive for peaceful coexistence and carries a broad appeal to European socialists in line with the new Moscow campaign for "unity on the left," political coalitions of Socialist and Communist parties outside the Soviet bloc.

The reduction undoubtedly stems also from the now widespread belief that advances in thermonuclear warfare have made large standing armies an unnecessary luxury.

Wyoming Republicans elected a 12-man delegation to their own national convention, all supporters of an Eisenhower-Nixon ticket.

In Oregon, Stevenson said he was not surprised to hear of Harriman's statement. "I have understood that he was a candidate since his announcement last October," Stevenson said, apparently referring to Harriman's oft-repeated statement that he is "not an active" candidate.

Stevenson was campaigning for votes in Oregon's May 18 primary election, in which he is opposed by Kefauver for Democratic write-in votes. Both men are scheduled to appear on the same platform in Eugene, Ore., tonight.

Speaking in Hillsboro, Ore., Stevenson last night renewed criticism of administration farm policy and of Vice President Nixon.

Nixon, he said, becomes "increasingly embarrassing" to the GOP, "and I would not be surprised if they will have found means of extricating themselves from his embrace." Democrats have been concentrating on what they term unethical campaign tactics by the vice president.

Kefauver, a California, renewed his own criticism of the government security program, noting he said the legislation went far beyond what he believed necessary for national defense.

New, Tighter Liquor Freeze Being Sought

State Board Told Carryout Permits Should Be Curbed

COLUMBUS (P)—Ohio Liquor Director William C. Bryant today proposed broadening of a new liquor freeze to include beer and wine carryout permits.

The state board of liquor control opened a hearing today on a new and permanent freeze regulation to replace the one ruled unconstitutional March 21 by the Ohio Supreme Court.

The proposed new regulation fails to include carryout permits and Bryant said in advance of the hearing:

"As the regulation now reads, the sky would be the limit on carryout permits."

Such a development would leave only the liquor permit quota system established in the Liquor Control Act itself to hold down the number of permits.

Only about 1,000 hard-liquor permits now are in force in Ohio. Bryant says that under the statutory quota system it might be necessary to issue 6,000 to 7,000 more.

The statutory quota is one hard-liquor permit to each 2,000 population except in cities over 50,000 where the ratio is 1-to-1,500. The proposed freeze would fix the limit at about 1-to-3,000.

In a letter to the board, Bryant pointed out he and his staff had no opportunity to study the proposed permanent freeze regulation until it had been adopted tentatively by the board.

He can't get around by himself any more, but he retains a hearty laugh, still smokes two or three cigars a day and eats well.

The presents for Salling today included a Confederate shirt to go with his uniform and a 10-gallon hat. The uniform was given to him several years ago. The shirt is a gift of Virginia Gov. Thomas B. Stanley; the hat was sent by the Texas Rangers.

SALLING'S WAR service was limited to digging salt-peter, which was used in the manufacture of gunpowder.

However, nobody dares belittle his service. The old Rebel asserts that he was in a company commanded by Capt. Lon Collins, and that he dug salt-peter for Gen. Robert E. Lee himself.

Salling is one of three surviving veterans of the Confederate Army. The others are William Allen Lundy of Crestview, Fla., and W. W. Williams of Franklin, Tex. The only surviving Union Army veteran is Albert Woolson of Duluth, Minn.

Senators See Some Chance Of Sincerity

Sen. George Doubts Red Move Should Be 'Hastily Dismissed'

WASHINGTON (P)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) today cautiously described as a possibly encouraging development Russia's announcement it is slashing its armed forces by 1,200,000 men.

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the announcement "ought not to be hastily dismissed without careful evaluation."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) said he favors a "wait and see" attitude until "we can determine if Russia is really sincere." Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) commented that "Russia again has seized the initiative." And Sen. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said the Eisenhower administration had seen outmaneuvered. All three serve on the Foreign Relations Committee.

The Russians said the announcement cut of 1,200,000 men does not include 640,000 demobilized last year. And they added all the reduction will be in effect by next May 1.

THE MOSCOW statement said the Soviet Union is "trying to make a contribution to disarmament." It challenged the United States, Britain and France to "contribute to the strengthening of peace" by following Moscow's example.

The United States, at least, is expected to reject Russia's suggestion that it trim its armed forces further.

The Soviet move came as no surprise to officials here. Secretary of State Dulles is known to feel it would be unsafe for the Western Powers to try to match Russia in any manpower reductions.

His argument is based on a premise that the West needs long lines of supply and communications while the Russians are set up with short lines in areas of potential conflict.

The Soviets now have roughly 4½ million men under arms as compared with 2,849,695 for the United States.

Senators Wiley (R-Wis.) and Humphrey interpreted the Soviet move as a new effort to weaken the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, and as a possible blow at the administration's $4,900,000,000 foreign aid program.

George, who yesterday formally accepted Eisenhower's offer of a post as personal ambassador to NATO, said of the Moscow statement:

"It is impossible to tell what the Soviet leaders may mean by this announcement."

"IT IS TOO early to accept the conclusion that they have made any changes in their basic program which free people have long understood."

"However, the move toward the reduction of armies is encouraging and ought not to be hastily dismissed without careful evaluation. We shouldn't let our guard down, but we ought to be quite willing to make a careful examination which will take time."

Russia has announced its goal of overtaking the U. S. industrial potential within the next 10 to 15 years. Such a program will require all the manpower it can muster.

Furthermore, Soviet agriculture has suffered severely from the drain of peasant youth into the armed forces.

The military cut also bolsters the Soviet propaganda drive for peaceful coexistence and carries a broad appeal to European socialists in line with the new Moscow campaign for "unity on the left," political coalitions of Socialist and Communist parties outside the Soviet bloc.

The reduction undoubtedly stems also from the now widespread belief that advances in thermonuclear warfare have made large standing armies an unnecessary luxury.

Mrs. Johnson Is PTO President

Wayne Unit Views Graduation Program

In its last session of the school year, the Wayne PTO Monday evening selected a new slate of officers and heard the youngsters of the school present a program recalling the dozen years the Class of 1956 spent in school.

The new PTO president is Mrs. Loren C. Johnson. Other officers named by the nominating committee and approved by the members are Mrs. Lee Reisinger, vice president; Mrs. Max Smith, secretary and Mrs. George Gesling, treasurer.

Members of the nominating committee were Mrs. Eugene Thompson, Mrs. Willard Bonham, Mrs. Charles Goldsberry and Mrs. Russell Hatfield.

Another highlight of the business session was a vote to buy new equipment for the school. Among the items the PTO will purchase are steel cabinets, a file cabinet, easels and paints, educational toys and books, an unabridged dictionary and a table to place it on.

The committee which will be in charge of the dinner to be given for the youngsters on the last day of school was selected. Members are Mrs. Wayne Forsythe, Mrs. Titus Strouth and Mrs. William Dunn. In charge of preparing the iced tea for the dinner will be Mrs. Earl Rea and Mrs. Charles Blizzard.

Mrs. Edward Hoskins, the outgoing president, led the meeting. Mrs. William Dunn and Mrs. Emerald Sollars gave the secretary's and treasurer's reports. The group voted a gift to the Red Cross.

THE PROGRAM was presented by the members of the upper six grades, and was designed as a tribute to the Class of 1956.

The show opened with a class history prepared by Prin. Harold Thomas and read by Connie Garrison, president of the senior class, and Carolyn McCoy, the class secretary.

For each year named in the history, the boys and girls sang a song hit of the year. They were: "Sentimental Journey," by the triple trio, for the years 1944-45; "Zipity Doo Da," by the freshman class, 1946; "Forever and Ever," by the sophomore class, 1947; "Buttons and Bows," by the girls' chorus and the triple trio, 1948; "Dear Hearts and Gentle People," by the boys' chorus, 1949; "Whoopedy Doo," by the junior high chorus, 1950; "On Top of Old Smoky," by the mixed chorus, 1951; "Two To Tango," by the triple trio, 1952; "May God Be With You," by Alma and Dica McCormick, 1953; "Mr. Sandman," by the junior class, 1954, and "The Lord is a Busy Man," by the boys' chorus, 1955.

The seniors themselves closed the musical part of the program by singing "The Kentuckian" and "Memories Are Made of This." Movies of last year's senior class were shown at the close of the program.

The program committee members were Prin. Thomas, Norton Plymale, Alexander More, Miss Lida Grace Wissler, Mrs. Robert Hinchman and Mrs. Paul Gordon.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dale Eakins, Mrs. Robert Bush, Mrs. Millard Judy, Mrs. Earl Deering, Mrs. Emerald Sollars and Mrs. Edward Hoskins.

Coach Pierson Dies

stands up for them against everyone. More than one Lion of his football squads has said that although he was tough on them in practice, they knew it was for their own good, their physical well-being when the whistle blew; they said they knew that he would criticize them severely, but would never stand for anyone else doing it.

While not so much was known of his other activities, the little fellows of the elementary schools worshipped him as the coach of their basketball teams. As a part of his work in the elementary schools, he set up and carried out an athletic program tailored to the bodies and minds of the children.

It was this understanding of young people that made him such a success as the director of the 1948 and 1949 summertime recreation program with its playgrounds at the different schools. The program ended with the coming of the swimming pool.

He could trade jolts on the football field with high school boys and be as gentle as a kitten with the little folks—and they all understood him and respected him.

WITH A RARE display of administrative ability, he managed the Washington Park swimming pool through its first two years.

He and Max Lawrence were the co-chairmen of the state softball tournaments when they were held here in 1949 and 1950.

He was a member of the First Christian Church in Wilmington and the Elks Lodge in Wilmington, the American Legion in Marietta, the Marietta Country Club (he was a better-than-average golfer and bowler), the Ohio High School Coaches Association and represented the 11th district on its board of directors.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Kathleen Pierson and a son Billy, his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Pierson of Wilmington; a sister, Mrs. L. B. Frey of Blanchester; a brother, Frank Pierson of South Webster; a niece, Mrs. L. G. Mitchell of Cincinnati and a nephew, L. B. Frey of Pensacola, Fla. Funeral services are to be conducted at Grace Methodist Church here at 1 P. M. Friday by Rev. C. W. Black, pastor of the Marietta Methodist Church and Rev. L. J. Poe, pastor of Grace Church. Interment is to be in the Memorial Park Cemetery at Portsmouth. Mrs. Pierson's home town. Friends may call at the Gerstner Funeral Home after 1 P. M. Wednesday.

WITH A RARE display of administrative ability, he managed the Washington Park swimming pool through its first two years.

He and Max Lawrence were the co-chairmen of the state softball tournaments when they were held here in 1949 and 1950.

He was a member of the First Christian Church in Wilmington and the Elks Lodge in Wilmington, the American Legion in Marietta, the Marietta Country Club (he was a better-than-average golfer and bowler), the Ohio High School Coaches Association and represented the 11th district on its board of directors.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Kathleen Pierson and a son Billy, his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Pierson of Wilmington; a sister, Mrs. L. B. Frey of Blanchester; a brother, Frank Pierson of South Webster; a niece, Mrs. L. G. Mitchell of Cincinnati and a nephew, L. B. Frey of Pensacola, Fla. Funeral services are to be conducted at Grace Methodist Church here at 1 P. M. Friday by Rev. C. W. Black, pastor of the Marietta Methodist Church and Rev. L. J. Poe, pastor of Grace Church. Interment is to be in the Memorial Park Cemetery at Portsmouth, Mrs. Pierson's home town. Friends may call at the Gerstner Funeral Home after 1 P. M. Wednesday.

73 Persons Die As Launch Sinks

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Police today announced an overloaded motor launch had capsized in the Java Sea and 73 persons, including many women and children were drowned.

The boat was carrying 91 persons on a holiday excursion. Police said they were holding the skipper of the launch and two crewmen for questioning.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: About six months ago my husband passed away suddenly. Now, as a widow, I can't get adjusted to living alone. The days seem so long that I dread to wake up mornings. Sometimes for three or four days I talk to nobody, except on the telephone. I get my meals, do my housework and after that I don't know what to do with myself.

I have some money and am keeping my home, but I have no idea how long I will have to live on this money. Therefore I am afraid to spend much.

As I have few clothes, I don't go to church or any place. I could invite neighbors in for meals, but am afraid to spend the money. So do you think I could live on twelve to fifteen hundred a year? I wish you would suggest a budget.

DEAR D. W.: It seems that your life is going on exactly as it was before your husband died, except that you no longer have his companionship. By your own admission, your sole concern for years was in making a home for him.

As a wife, you turned your back on the rest of the world. You felt you didn't need people, and didn't bother to look around, to see if others might need some friendly helpfulness from you.

Now, in widowhood, your attitude towards life is still almost entirely self-centered, in a newly frightened way. In a sense (as the saying goes), you are crawling in to a hole, and trying to pull the hole in after you!

For help in planning an intelligent budget, consult your local banker or insurance agent either of whom will know what your basic expenditures and standard of living are (or should be). In your city, there should be employment opportunities open to widows. For example, department store sales work, receptionist or cashier in restaurants, kitchen or dining room helper in the school cafeteria, nurse's aide work in the local hospital, baby-sitting.

M.H. Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write to her in care of this newspaper.

US Engineer Shortage Decried

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The lamented shortage of engineers in this country is more apparent than real, a Standard Oil Co. of California executive contends.

W. L. Collins told the opening session of the West Coast Engineering Management Conference Monday that the shortage is not in the number of engineers but in the number actually working at engineering.

Statistics show, he said, that 20 years after graduation, half of those trained for engineering are working in administration and management.

Jenner Asks US Rap Red Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) has asked the Senate to demand a break in U.S. diplomatic relations with Romania and Hungary, and their expulsion from the United Nations, unless Soviet troops are withdrawn from their borders. He says the troops make both nations "occupied provinces of the Soviet Union."

Tea Is Planned At Convent Here

Mother Catherine Leaves This Month

An open house and a tea are to be combined Sunday afternoon in to a sort of farewell party for Mother Catherine, who is to be leaving St. Colman's Convent on East Street here the latter part of this month.

Mother Catherine came here soon after the convent was established in August of 1950. In accordance with the rules of the order, the Victory Noll Sisters, they remain in one convent no more than six years.

This order, it was explained, is a missionary order which sends teachers into parishes in which there are no Catholic schools.

Mother Catherine, it was said, will return to Victory Noll Mother House at Huntington, Ind., and go from there to her new assignment. As a rule, nuns from this order go out only for the regular school term and, in accordance with this policy, the St. Colman's Convent here probably will be closed through June, July and August as it has been in the past.

THE TWO SISTERS who have been at St. Colman's Convent through the year now drawing to a close, Sister Alice and Sister Viola, probably will return to the Victory Noll Mother House, it was said. They have been here only since last September and they may, or may not, return with the opening of school next fall.

When the convent was first established here, there was the mother superior and three sisters, but for the last couple of years, there have been only Mother Catherine and two sisters.

The tea, which is sponsored by the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, is to be from 2 until 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. It is for both Catholics and Protestants to come and say farewell to Mother Catherine.

Mrs. Tranquillo DelPonte, the president of the DCCW, said the officers of the Council would serve, Mrs. John Boylan and Mrs. Harold Lyons at the tea table and Mrs. Max Wilson at the punch bowl.

Members of the DCCW also are to serve tea cakes and mints.

Prizewinning dress is being modeled by Mrs. Robert Wilson of near Greenfield. Mrs. Wilson, who made the dress herself, placed second with it in the tri-state regional Sewing Machine contest in Cincinnati. She learned to sew through a school here, conducted by Mrs. Ursel Hays of Washington C. H. Described as a "dressup dress," by Mrs. Hays, it is made of yellow Irish linen and displays "a great deal of detail work."

Insurance Group Hears Reports

'Block Coverage' Is Discussed

The regular monthly meeting of the Fayette County Insurance Association was held at the Country Club Restaurant at noon on Monday. The president, Paul Pennington, presided with eight members in attendance.

After the routine business meeting, there was a report of the association committee which met with city council regarding the proposed improvements in the city fire protection.

The committee is to work further to provide council with some data in regards to insurance savings in the event the town classification could be changed through proposed improvements in fire protection.

Tom Mark reported on the district association meeting at the Snow Hill Country Club.

There was quite a discussion of the proposed compulsory automobile insurance laws which are now in effect in some states.

SECRETARY Wilbur Snapp, reported on a scholarship which is available to interested young men in the insurance field, at the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago.

This is made available in Ohio through the Ohio Fire Underwriters Association of Columbus.

The president reported that the state association meeting is to be held in Granville May 17 and 18th and urged all members to attend.

The meeting was then turned over to Paul Mohr, program chairman, who presented Claude Williams of the Citizens Fire Insurance Co. Williams gave an outline of the new mercantile block coverage which is now available for certain types of businesses.

Auto makers expect America to have 85 million cars and trucks by 1975.

Mrs. Ruth Hopkins' sixth grade boys and girls at Eastside entertained with Mother's Day tea on Thursday afternoon.

The room mothers had given several nice parties for the children, so the boys and girls thought this would be a way to say "Thank You" to these and all mothers.

It was the first tea party for many so there was much discussion and planning involved.

Committees for serving for decorating, and for greeting the guests were appointed.

As each mother arrived, a corsage was pinned on her shoulder by her son or daughter. The corsages were made by the children during the morning hours. Corsages were presented to Mrs. Pensyl and Mrs. Hopkins.

As the guests departed they were given Mother's Day cards made in the art class and inscribed with a very personal note.

Maybe A New Approach To Problem Is Needed

There seems to be a steady increase in Ohio in the record of highway deaths serious injuries and damage to cars and other property directly attributed to intoxication.

The public is beginning to notice more of this situation and here and there people are beginning to call upon medical science as well as law enforcement agencies to do something more about it.

Fayette County has had some of this drunk driving trouble but most other communities, especially larger cities, apparently have been bothered to a greater extent.

Here we have had alert and excellent service by our city police officers, our sheriff's office and the state highway patrolmen, in picking up drunk drivers as well as other careless offenders in traffic matters. The courts here appear to have dealt with them in a stern manner, but that, apparently, is only a part of the solution which must be worked out.

A drunken driver can be fined, sentenced to a jail term, serve a minimum sentence and even though his driving rights are removed for a time, he can return to drive and endanger other motorists and pedestrians again.

It is said that many of such drivers are mentally ill and perhaps not criminally ill. Maybe they need hospitalization, not a jail sentence. Unfortunately, Ohio does not now have institutions for the care of alcoholism.

In fact, as soon as a state institution for the mentally ill discovers it is treating a patient whose illness is "alcohol", he is dismissed.

There is a tremendous field for development in the entire area between medical science and law enforcement agencies. To bridge this gap both state facilities and governing laws must grow up together.

Under our present laws, trial courts' hands often are tied by the lack of laws governing the entire problem of alcoholism. Ohio has no state government facilities for treating this disease.

At present, voluntary treatment is the only answer in such cases.

Furthermore it will do no good to merely revise state laws so that alcoholics may be treated rather than merely punished, until proper facilities for handling such cases are available.

Nearly everyone recognizes that the use of alcoholics is a large contributing factor in the growing traffic death toll, not only in Ohio but in all other places where motor car traffic is heavy. This is true in many cases of motorists and pedestrians alike.

No community can afford to have its courts show any letup in punishing offenders, but maybe the general public and all our officials should show an interest in an approach to this problem at its source and in legal procedure for required treatment in cases of drivers, or pedestrians, who become public offenders.

Hong Kong Going Very Dry

HONG KONG (AP)—The rents on hilly Hong Kong's upper level apartments are high, but most people desire them. The views of the harbor and the sea are breathtaking, especially at dusk. But not many are gazing out picture windows right now.

They're too busy peering or sitting in dry bathtubs waiting for the water to come on. For some, it hasn't trickled out the tap since May 1 when strict rationing of three hours every other day began.

It seems their downstairs neighbors spend the three hours in washing clothes, bathing, mopping floors and filling every available can with water for use on dry days.

That means water pressure never gets a chance to build up to the top apartments.

The Water Authority, which takes the brunt of the complaints, can only urge downstairs folks to have some pity on their upstairs neighbors. So far, the pity angle hasn't worked. Complaints are increasing as the temperature rises.

Hong Kong Island and its adjacent chunk of mainland, Kowloon, always have suffered from water shortages, but things this year are the worst since 1929, when ships had to carry fresh water in from Canton.

Rainfall the last six months has been about half normal and reservoirs are so low you could slide almost all the way down the sloped walls before you'd get wet.

Most of the 20,000 Europeans and Americans living in this British colony take the shortage in stride, but it's hard on many of the hundreds of thousands of Chinese refugees who fled Communist China.

These people, the poor of Hong Kong, live in orange crate huts

By Len Lefkow

(Substituting for Hal Boyce)

and are forced to carry their supply sometimes miles from public water taps.

Enterprising Chinese already have found a way to make a dollar on the shortage. Some, who need a meal more than a bath, sell what they can get. The going price is 30 cents (U. S. 5 cents) for five gallons.

Others have gone into the container business in a hurry. The price of a 10-gallon sheet metal can was about $8 (U. S. $1.30). Now they cost about $20.

The shortage, should it continue, could conceivably hurt Hong Kong's economy. Many industries, such as textile dyeing, laundries, restaurants and bottling plants, need water to exist.

So far, rationing hasn't cut into the business life of this colony of 2½ million residents, but the problems will become worse than a missed bath unless heavy and steady rains begin falling soon.

Anglo-American Relations

In his speech before the 20th Congress of the CPSU, Nikita Khrushchev reached the thoroughly Marxist conclusion that the inevitable conflict within the capitalist world is between Great Britain and the United States. In the theory of Marxism, capitalism contains the seeds for its own destruction and one of the most explosive seeds is the competition among these countries. In World War I and World War II, the Marxists believed that they saw this principle at work, and when Lenin founded the first Marxist government, Soviet Russia, he postulated the success of his enterprise on the historic inevitability of the capitalist countries destroying each other.

Thus Khrushchev said at the 20th Congress of the CPSU:

"As before, the main conflict is that between the United States and Great Britain, Anglo-American antagonism embraces a wide range of questions. Under the 'Atlantic Cooperation' slogan, the trans-Atlantic competitors are grabbing the principal strategic and economic positions of the British Empire; they are working to obtain a footing on the imperial lines of communications, smother the system of preferential tariffs, and get control of the sterling area. It is not surprising, therefore, that in Britain, and in France too, there is a growing desire to put an end to the situation in which 'Atlantic Cooperation' is of advantage only to one partner."

He then went on to speak of West Germany's revival of economic power: "the experience of two world wars shows that, in their struggle for markets, the German monopolies will stop at nothing."

Then he ends this section of his speech with the paragraph: "The problem of markets is becoming all the more acute because the frontiers of the capitalist world market are increasingly contracting as a result of the formation of the new and growing socialist world market. Besides, the underdeveloped countries, on casting off the colonial yoke, begin the development of their own industry products. All this means that the struggle for markets and spheres of influence will become still sharper within the imperialist camp."

The essence of this doctrine is that the United States and Great Britain, in their struggle for markets, must knock each other out, as two wars knocked Germany out, and as World War II knocked out Japan and Holland as imperialist powers. It apparently is the expectation of Khrushchev and his colleagues that Great Britain will resent the American success in former British markets and will take steps to undermine the United States, or will join with Soviet Russia against the United States.

The error that Khrushchev makes is fundamental with Marxists. It would not occur to them that Great Britain and the United States could combine in industrial operations as they have been doing by the export of capital from the United States to Great Britain. The differences between the two countries have been as much over methods of achieving the same objectives as over markets.

From the standpoint of opposition to Soviet Russia, American support of anti-colonialism may have strengthened Russia and weakened Great Britain, but this is not yet a fact and it is even possible that from the long view, British industry will benefit by the relationship of nations within the commonwealth. It is impossible to say at this point that anti-colonialism aimed at the nations of Western Europe only but not at the colonial expansion of Russia and China has not strengthened Russia's position throughout the world, but it is true that Great Britain has made an astonishing recovery after World War II with American assistance and that West Germany has made an astonishing, an unbelievable recovery. It is also true that Holland has stood the test of the loss of the Dutch East Indies (Indonesia).

An even more profound error is Khrushchev's assumption that Great Britain and the United States came to its defense. The Kaiser and Hitler made the same mistake that Khrushchev is making and it proved to be very costly to them. If anything, the United States would probably be stronger economically had it not entered these wars, but American public opinion supported President Wilson and Roosevelt in standing by Great Britain.

Can Be Fatal

If you've been poisoned previously by either the liquid or the fumes, your chances of being affected again are increased. While this poison can be fatal or produce a serious illness, you may escape with a simple headache or a feeling of discomfort.

There are a few precautions you can take to prevent accidental poisonings around your home.

If a non-flammable cleaning fluid container does not list its ingredients, assume that it contains carbon tetrachloride. It's best to use such a solution outdoors. If that's impossible, at least ventilate the room as well as you can, opening both windows and doors.

Don't inhale the vapors. And leave the room as soon as you can.

If you are cleaning auto upholstery, leave the windows open even after you're through to permit the solution to evaporate. Of course any flammable solution should be used only outdoors.

Pungent Fumes

It won't burn. And for this reason it is used in many non-flammable cleaning fluids. However, both the liquid and the pungent fumes can be poisonous.

While we don't know just why, persons who are habitual alcoholics seem to be much more susceptible to carbon tetrachloride poisoning. Others who are especially susceptible are those suffering from stomach, liver, kidney or heart diseases or from under-nourishment.

Can Be Fatal

Proudly Joins in Celebrating the Dedication of the

GENERAL MOTORS TECHNICAL CENTER

The 1956 Cadillac Coupe de Ville in the dramatically beautiful lobby of the new Styling Section at the General Motors Technical Center

We cordially invite you to visit our showroom this week to celebrate the formal opening of this great institution—and to see and drive the magnificent 1956 Cadillac.

The opening of the fabulous new General Motors Technical Center in suburban Detroit heralds a new era of automotive advancement. No ordinary manufacturer's laboratory, the Technical Center is the world's largest establishment devoted to research in the industrial arts and sciences. More than ten years in the building, it occupies over 330 acres and employs four thousand engineers, scientists, researchers and stylists.

We hope that you will visit our showroom to help us celebrate this historic opening . . . and to see, inspect and drive one of the most brilliant examples of General Motors progress in styling and engineering—the 1956 Cadillac.

In beauty . . . in luxury . . . in performance . . . in everything that makes a motor car a joy to own and to utilize . . . it is unmistakably the "car of cars".

We will be happy to see you at any time—to give you the keys for a personal demonstration drive—and to acquaint you with some news about cost and delivery that we think you will find difficult to resist.

We'll be looking forward to seeing you!

Tax Talk Set For BPW Meet

Income Tax Director For Area To Speak

A frank discussion of the background and problems encountered in the administration of tax laws and the collection of taxes is promised for Tuesday evening's (tonight's) dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club at the Country Club.

Nathaniel Looker

The speaker is well qualified for his topic. He is Nathaniel Looker, director of the 28-county tax district served by the Columbus office of the Internal Revenue service.

A native of Fayette County and a former teacher at the Bookwalter School, Looker has been a government employee since 1933. In that year, he joined the Columbus office of the WPA—the Work Projects Administration. In 1941, he was assigned to the Bureau of the Budget office in Washington, where he was a budget examiner.

He served during most of the war years in the OWI (Office of War Information) as chief of the finance and accounts division and later as finance officer.

After the war, he worked in the Navy Department and the Veterans Administration. He was appointed to his present position with the Internal Revenue service in 1952.

Another feature of the meeting will be a performance of "The Telephone," a short opera by Gian Carlo Menotti. Among the performers, all students at Wilmington College, will be Miss Martha Hudson.

The BPW education committee, headed by Miss Florence Cook, planned the meeting. Other members of the committee are Mrs.

Minnette Fritts, Mrs. Charlotte Gregg, Mrs. Marjorie Looker, Mrs. Dorothy Miller, Miss Ada Rechenbach, Mrs. Mildred Rogers, Miss Jane Trent, Miss Anna Varlas, Mrs. Clara Lee Markley and Miss Mary Lou Ralston.

OSU Trustees OK Purchase Of More Land

COLUMBUS (AP)—Further expansion of Ohio State University's campus and farms have been authorized by the school board of trustees.

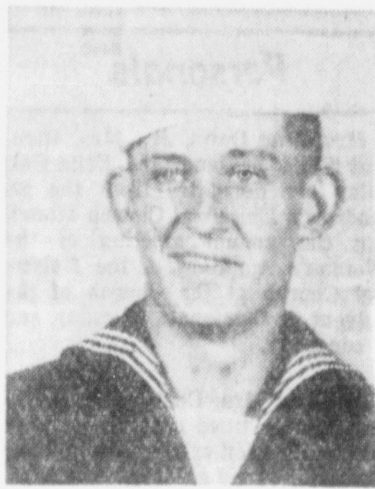

The trustees approved purchase of 39 lots extending from Woodruff Ave. north to Lane Ave. and eastward to a point near Neil Ave. north of Woodruff. It is a two-block area.

Jacob B. Taylor, vice president and business manager of the university, said the purchase price is $460,124 and that the new ground will permit the university to expand facilities for its engineering school.

At the same time the board authorized purchase of two 21-acre tracts east of the Don Scott Air port at a price of $1500 per acre. The tracts will be an important addition to the airport property and the university farm.

The trustees also authorized purchase of about 1500 watercolors and sketches, the work of Prof. Ralph Fanning, for $7,500. Dr. Fanning retires this year after having served 35 years on the faculty of the School of Fine and Applied Arts.

Amateurs bought 50 percent of the asphalt tile used in the United States in 1953.

Ralph D. Jordan

Ralph D. Jordan, USN, bears the rating of fireman apprentice today, after completing nine weeks' naval basic training at the recruit training center in Bainbridge, Md. The son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Jordan of Route 3, Washington C. H., Jordan has been ordered to Newport, Rhode Island, for duty. Jordan entered the navy here on Feb. 13, 1956.

Alumni Dance Is Set For Reesville Saturday

A dinner dance designed to reunite graduates of Reesville High School will be held at the school Saturday evening.

The high school is now an elementary school, but is the alma mater of many graduates in the years before a consolidation that sent Reesville High School students to Simon Kenton.

The dinner will begin at 7 P. M. with dancing to start at 9:30.

The president of the school's alumni association, Robert Ewing of Wilmington, is in charge of planning the event.

Water Co. Here Sets Open House

Tour Of Facilities Planned For Public

The Ohio Water Service Co. has announced that the new plant of the company, as well as the reservoir, will be open for public inspection from 1 P. M. until 8 P. M. on Friday and Saturday.

The public generally will be welcomed at the plant by officials and employees. Then they will be shown through the plant and about the reservoir.

At the reservoir, the gate will be opened on the south side so the public may climb the retaining walls and see the reservoir proper, instead of seeing the earthen walls from the outside and not realizing that it encloses a several months water supply for the city.

Wednesday the top officials of the company, as well as the board of directors, and the city officials and contractors will meet at 11 A. M., and inspect the plant, after which they will have luncheon at Hotel Washington.

Thursday the high school students and junior high students will be shown through the plant and the workings will be thoroughly explained, as they will each day the plant and reservoir are open to the public.

When open house is held for the public Friday and Saturday from 3 P. M. until 8 P. M., it will afford the public a real opportunity to get acquainted with the plant and know just how the city water is handled from the time it is pumped from Paint Creek until it is ready for human consumption.

YMCA Said Exempt On Charity Law

COLUMBUS (AP)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill says the Young Men's Christian Assn. is exempt from registration under Ohio's new charitable solicitation law.

The new law requires registration and reports by organizations and persons soliciting funds for charity.

Columbus All Set For Horse Show

Members of The River Ridge Riding Club are busy planning the first Horse Show of the 1956 Columbus season. It is to be held Saturday and Sunday in the Ohio State Fairgrounds Coliseum. More than 40 fine classes, including saddle horses, hunters, jumpers, western, and walking horse divisions will crowd the four big sessions. Shows will be held indoors, regardless of the weather, at 1 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. daily.

Features range from junior saddle horse seat class for boys and girls under 12 years of age and Western children's horsemanship to championship stake classes for 5-gaited stallions, mares or geldings. Working hunters, fine harness, and Western parade horse classes provide a colorful variety of events for each of the four sessions.

River Ridge Riding Club, formed in the 1920's, moved to its present Clubhouse on the Lane Farm on West Henderson Road, north of Columbus, in 1930. Its facilities include the club, where member families meet for supper Thursday and Sunday evenings, barns for more than 60 horses, riding rings and fields for practice riding, and fine horse trails through wooded hills and ravines near the Scioto River.

Your Skin May Reveal Your Secret

CLEVELAND (AP)—Got a secret? Careful, your skin may give it away.

It may show as a blush on a normal person, or pop out as eczema on one who suppresses his feelings too much or doesn't know what they are.

"Everyone to some extent uses his skin to supplement his conscious feeling," said Dr. Brian Bird, a Western Reserve University psychiatrist, in an interview. He cited these examples:

Blushing for embarrassment, mental blanching for disgust, dryness of skin for excitement, sweat for fright, chills for dread and warmth for love.

All that is normal. "But where a person is not aware of his changed feelings, and his skin bears the entire brunt of them, an abnormal condition exists—such as hives and eczema," Dr. Bird said. In the cases of some eczema sufferers, he said, he found that the patients appeared sweet and gentle on the surface but were inwardly seething with anger.

When he was able to get the patient to "blow up" in anger during treatment, the eczema cleared up, he said.

Dr. Bird advised skin specialists that "in the attempt to discover why psychological forces lie behind any skin disorder, every variety of emotion, feeling, wish or impulse should be suspected."

Easy sauce for cooked cauliflower: condensed cream of mushroom soup thinned with a third cup of light cream.

Quick soup: grated raw carrot simmered with thin white sauce that has been flavored with onion juice and celery salt.

"No, son,

these pipes don't reach to China...

But—in a way, they are connected to Texas!"

"Yes, you see a lot of these pipes sticking up in the air around town. They are connected to a little box-like room just beneath here that holds a natural gas regulator. These pipes let air into that regulator's room!"

"A regulator?... Well, I'll put it this way: Suppose your mother lighted the oven in your home, and every other woman in the neighborhood decided to light her oven at the same time. This regulator sees that gas flows to each home at just the right pressure. If your home happened to be the only one using gas at any time (which is quite unlikely), you'd still get just the right amount. That's the job of this regulator."

"Yes, I did mention Texas. The gas we use comes from Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Kansas. It comes in giant pipes, and at high pressure so it will move right along. Then Dayton Power and Light puts it through a series of five and six foolproof regulators to reduce it gradually to the very low pressure that reaches your home."

"Yes, sir. As you grow older you'll learn that DP&L is busy 24 hours a day performing services that make your home more pleasant!"

Meeting Is Held At Bethards Home

Members of the True Blue Class of Sugar Grove Church met recently at home of Mr. and Mrs. El-don Bethards for the regular business meeting.

Mr. Harold Hise conducted the business meeting which he opened with a song service. Mr. Donald Denen, acted as devotional leader and the Scripture reading he chose was taken from the Book of Acts and this portion of the meeting was closed with the singing of a hymn and all praying the Lord's Prayer.

The usual reports were heard and accepted and cards were sent to ill members.

Program leader, Mrs. Donald Denen introduced Mrs. Harold Hise who gave some readings, and Mrs. Lawrence Black entertained with several piano selections including "You're A Wonderful Mother" and "Mother." The singing of a hymn brought the meeting to a close.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Bethards served delicious refreshments and informal visiting was enjoyed.

Mrs. Booco Entertains At Family Dinner

Mrs. Leora Booco entertained at a dinner on Mother's Day, at her home in Jeffersonville and included as guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blankenship of Jamestown, Mrs. Robert Loewer and daughter Kay, Mr. Ralph Hoyt of Richmond, Indiana, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knisley of Jeffersonville. Mr. Robert Loewer and daughter Janie, of Richmond, were unable to attend due to illness.

Miss Kay Loewer was recently chosen from a group of four hundred to serve as president of the Y-Teen Council of Richmond, Indiana.

Afternoon guests at Mrs. Booco's home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mitchell and children Russell, Paul and John of Jeffersonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Carson Gossard and daughter Barbara, of Springfield.

Carol Dellinger Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Carol Dellinger, a bride-to-be, was complimented recently at a shower at the home of Miss Ethel Stewardson.

Mrs. Earl Wimer, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Miss Marilyn Schiller were awarded prizes at the conclusion of several contests, and they in turn presented them to the honor guest.

Miss Dellinger opened her many lovely gifts, for which she expressed her appreciation, at a table centered with a beautiful church that included a wedding scene. Suspended from the chandelier were red and white streamers with white hearts.

At the close of the event, a delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

Included as guests were Mrs. Charles Hiser, Mrs. Harry Hiser, Miss Florella Burton, Mrs. Ora Walls, Miss Dixie Walls, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Mrs. Mae Wilson, Mrs. John Harrison, Miss Marilyn Schiller, Miss Franchon Sanders, Mrs. Orville Dunlap, Mrs. Leonard Dellinger, Miss Donna Mathews, Miss Katy Hackett, Mrs. Earl Wimer and daughters Patricia Rose and Nola Ann.

Afternoon Wedding Of May 6th Being Announced

Mrs. Larry East

The lovely afternoon wedding of Miss Barbara Sue Minshall and Airman Third Class Larry East, took place Sunday, May 6th, at the home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. B. O. East in Mil-lidgeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Minshall of the Anderson Road are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom has resided with his grandmother, Mrs. East.

Beautiful spring flowers consisting mostly of tulips and lilacs, afforded the lovely background for the double ring ceremony which took place at four o'clock in the afternoon, with Reverend George Groh officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her white street length jacket dress, which was trimmed with white pearl buttons. Pearl earrings and bracelet were her only jewelry, and her bridal bouquet was of white lilies of the valley combined with white roses.

Miss Natalie McLean of Milledgeville, served as matron of honor and she was attractively dressed in a yellow dacton street length dress with white accessories and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mr. Russell Klontz, also of Milledgeville, acted as best man.

Mrs. Minshall was attired in a blue veil afternoon dress with white accessories and her corsage consisted of yellow roses. Mrs. East wore a light green afternoon dress combined with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the groom's home for nearly thirty guests, and Mrs. Harry Fichtorn was hostess for the serving of the traditional wedding cake and ice cream.

As the couple left on a short honeymoon through the southern states, the new Mrs. East was wearing a blue and white dress with which she combined white accessories.

Both are graduates of Washington High School in the class of 1955 and Mrs. East is presently employed at Craig Brothers Department Store in this city.

The bridegroom has served in the Air Force for seven months and will report for duty to Chanute Air

Lovely Event Is Held To Honor Mothers

A Mother and Daughter banquet was held last Friday evening in the social rooms of the First Christian Church and the rooms were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and candles.

Approximately 150 mothers and daughters were served a delicious dinner which had been prepared by Mrs. Elza Arnold, Mrs. Ben Norris, Mrs. Homer Flint, Mrs. Milbourne Flee, Mrs. G. B. Vance, Mrs. Ruth Miller, and Mrs. Chan Hyer. Several of the men of the church, under the chairmanship of Milbourne Flee, served the dinner with an almost professional touch included in Mr. Flee's committee were Mr. Bill Brown, Mr. Dick Maughmer, Mr. Paul Maughmer, Mr. Thurl Campbell, Mr. John Calender, Mr. Bill Phillips, Mr. William Goldsberry and Mr. Elza Arnold.

After the dinner, Mrs. Richard Curl, chairman, presented a wonderful program which was preceded by the singing of "Faith of our Mothers" by the entire group. Other items on the program were "Songs My Mother Taught Me", a vocal solo by Miss Rosemary Swartz with violin obligato by Mrs. Charles Sheridan; "M-O-T-H-E-R", a trio, by Miss Rosemary Swartz, Mrs. Thurl Campbell and Mrs. Paul Maughmer; "Little Mother of Mine", a double duet by Mrs. Coyt Stookey, Miss Rosemary Swartz, Mrs. Thurl Campbell and Mrs. Paul Maughmer; and "Nursery Rhymes", a vocal solo by Mrs. Coyt Stookey. Miss Christine Switzer accompanied all of the musical numbers.

Completing the program was a discussion on Mothers of the Bible led by Mrs. Don McMillin who was assisted by Mrs. Thurman Coulter, Mrs. Charles Bowers, Miss Shirley Carter, Mrs. Laura Chaney, Miss Judy Smith, Mrs. Robert Pierson and Mrs. Margaret Strong.

A very enjoyable evening was brought to a close with a benediction by Mrs. Don McMillin.

Miss Theobald Honored At Lovely Shower

The White Oak Grove Church of the Buena Vista Community was the scene of a recent miscellaneous shower, honoring bride-to-be, Miss Roberta Theobald.

Tables were arranged in a rectangular design and each one was covered in white linen with bouquets of lilies and tulips placed attractively on the tables. A large white wedding bell, suspended from the ceiling, completed the decorations.

Hostesses for the event were the ladies of the community and guests were neighbors and friends of Miss Theobald and her fiancé, Mr. William Case, whose marriage will be an event of Sunday, June 10th.

Following the opening of the many shower gifts and Miss Theobald's gracious response refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those participating in the pleasant event were Mrs. Harry Rife, Mrs. Russell Theobald, Mrs. Donald Rife, Mrs. Charles Theobald and Joyce, Mrs. Jed Stuckey, Mrs. Willard Allen, Mrs. Martin Gilmer and Mrs. W. H. Theobald.

Mrs. Everett Page, Mrs. Pierce Miller and Rita, Mrs. James Gilmore, Mrs. John McFadden, Mrs. Howard Williams, Mrs. Mary Smalley, Mrs. John Dowler, Mrs. Robert McFadden, Mrs. Clara Belle Patton, Mrs. Charles Eakins, Mrs. Ralph Theobald, Mrs. Robert Case, and Miss Oma Waddle.

The usual reports were heard and accepted and cards were sent to ill members.

Program leader, Mrs. Donald Denen introduced Mrs. Harold Hise who gave some readings, and Mrs. Lawrence Black entertained with several piano selections including "You're A Wonderful Mother," and "Mother." The singing of a hymn brought the meeting to a close.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Bethards served delicious refreshments and informal visiting was enjoyed.

Meeting Is Held At Bethards Home

Members of the True Blue Class of Sugar Grove Church met recently at home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Bethards for the regular business meeting.

Mr. Harold Hise conducted the business meeting which he opened with a song service. Mr. Donald Denen acted as devotional leader and the Scripture reading he chose was taken from the Book of Acts and this portion of the meeting was closed with the singing of a hymn and all praying the Lord's Prayer.

The usual reports were heard and accepted and cards were sent to ill members.

Mrs. Booco Entertains At Family Dinner

Mrs. Leora Booco entertained at a dinner on Mother's Day, at her home in Jeffersonville and included as guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blankenship of Jamestown, Mrs. Robert Loewer and daughter Kay, Mr. Ralph Hoyt of Richmond, Indiana, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Knisley of Jeffersonville. Mr. Robert Loewer and daughter Janie, of Richmond, were unable to attend due to illness.

Miss Kay Loewer was recently chosen from a group of four hundred to serve as president of the Y-Teen Council of Richmond, Indiana.

Afternoon guests at Mrs. Booco's home were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mitchell and children Russell, Paul and John of Jeffersonville, and Mr. and Mrs. Carson Gossard and daughter Barbara, of Springfield.

Carol Dellinger Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Carol Dellinger, a bride-to-be, was complimented recently at a shower at the home of Miss Ethel Stewardson.

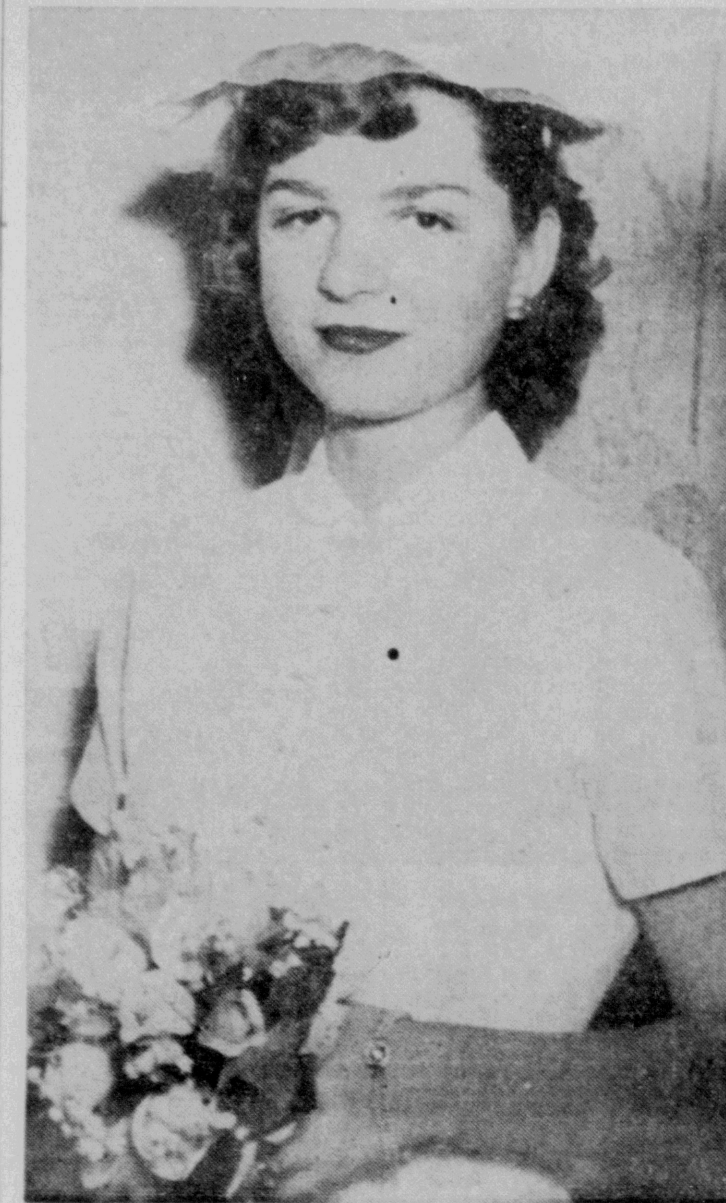

Mrs. Earl Wimer, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Miss Marilyn Schiller were awarded prizes at the conclusion of several contests, and they in turn presented them to the honor guest.

Miss Dellinger opened her many lovely gifts, for which she expressed her appreciation, at a table centered with a beautiful church that included a wedding scene. Suspended from the chandelier were red and white streamers with white hearts.

At the close of the event, a delicious salad course was served by the hostess.

Included as guests were Mrs. Charles Hiser, Mrs. Harry Hiser, Miss Florella Burton, Mrs. Ora Walls, Miss Dixie Walls, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Marvin Wilson, Mrs. Mae Wilson, Mrs. John Harrison, Miss Marilyn Schiller, Miss Franchon Sanders, Mrs. Orville Dunlap, Mrs. Leonard Dellinger, Miss Donna Mathews, Miss Kay Hackett, Mrs. Earl Wimer and daughters Patricia Rose and Nola Ann.

Afternoon Wedding Of May 6th Being Announced

Mrs. Larry East

The lovely afternoon wedding of Miss Barbara Sue Minshall and Airman Third Class Larry East, took place Sunday, May 6th, at the home of the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. B. O. East in Milledgeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Minshall of the Anderson Road are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom has resided with his grandmother, Mrs. East.

Beautiful spring flowers consisting mostly of tulips and lilies, afforded the lovely background for the double ring ceremony which took place at four o'clock in the afternoon, with Reverend George Groh officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked lovely in her white street length jacket dress, which was trimmed with white pearl buttons. Pearl earrings and bracelet were her only jewelry, and her bridal bouquet was of white lilies of the valley combined with white roses.

Miss Natalie McLean of Milledgeville, served as matron of honor and she was attractively dressed in a yellow dacron street length dress with white accessories and her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mr. Russell Klontz, also of Milledgeville, acted as best man.

Mrs. Minshall was attired in a blue veil afternoon dress with white accessories and her corsage consisted of yellow roses. Mrs. East wore a light green afternoon dress combined with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the groom's home for nearly thirty guests, and Mrs. Harry Fichthorn was hostess for the serving of the traditional wedding cake and ice cream.

As the couple left on a short honeymoon through the southern states, the new Mrs. East was wearing a blue and white dress with which she combined white accessories.

Both are graduates of Washington High School in the class of 1955 and Mrs. East is presently employed at Craig Brothers Department Store in this city.

The bridegroom has served in the Air Force for seven months and will report for duty to Chanute Air

Tough Game By Lions Lost 1 to 0

Wilmington Slowed By Tight Defense

Still smarting from a 12-1 defeat suffered at the hands of Wilmington High School last Thursday, the Washington C. H. baseball Lions went out to Gardner Park and battled the Hurricane through one of the toughest contests the Clinton County nine has seen all season—only to bow out, 1-0, in the top of the seventh.

It was a tough defeat for the Lions to take, but it vindicated their squad after last Thursday's game. They proved to everyone that they were a ball club to be dealt with, win or lose.

Lions picked up three hits and made only one error in the field, while pitcher Roger Shackleford struck out 13 Hurricane batters. The Hurricane, although winning the game, got only three hits, made two miscues and succeeded in striking out only 11 Lions.

For six long innings the two teams went scoreless and at least twice in that period the Hurricane found the Lions breaking down at its neck and on the very edge of scoring. Neither team could make any headway, however, for all of that time.

IN THE FIRST inning, Frank Merriman got on base, stole second, and was almost to third when he was caught stealing again. Dick Anders made it all the way to third in the same frame when he, John Grooms, and Ron Will found themselves all on base at the same time.

But effort or no effort, it wasn't the Lions' frame. It was in the third that the Hurricane really got its scare. Merriman, fleet-footing down to first on an error, stole second and got to third on a passed ball. It was only as he started down the home stretch that the squeeze play got him and he had to return to the bench.

Wilmington scored their single tally in the seventh, when Bill Goings, pinch-running for the shortstop, came home on a passed ball.

Another valiant Lions attempt in the bottom of the seventh proved futile, and the Hurricane carried home the victory. But it was a different sort of victory than the one they won last week.

Calhoun's Pilot Proud Of Boxer

NEW YORK, Pa. — Charley Gold man feels confident he has another champion in middleweight Rory Calhoun.

The tiny trainer of retired heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano believes he has the perfect candidate for new honors in the solidly built, 21-year-old from White Plains, N. Y.

"Another year ought to do it," said Charley after Rory blasted out Randy Sandy in 2:46 of the first round of a bout here last night.

It was the 21st straight victory and 11th knockout for the undefeated Calhoun.

M. Wilson. It was a 2:08.1 effort in the class 22-23 pace.

The attendance for the second night of the spring meeting was 1,321, the mutual handle $45,586.

Redleg Camp Under Cloud Of Confusion

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — There's a lot of confusion about the Cincinnati Redlegs—in fourth place in the National League and only a couple of games out of first.

The confusion stems from a number of things. First, there is the inability of Joe Nuxhall to hit a winning stride. He hasn't won a game in six starts but is due to try it again tonight when the Reds open a series against Pittsburgh.

Second, is the case of Ted Kluszewski. He was benched for seven games for not being in condition when he got back in the game he started making errors and his hits usually came when they weren't needed. He was benched again Sunday for the second game of a disastrous doubleheader against the Milwaukee Braves.

Third, is the item of possible deals between now and the June 12 deadline. There have been rumors that catcher Smokey Burgess was trading back but Monday the Reds sent No. 3 catcher Matt Batts to Nashville of the Southern Association.

Even though Batts' release was on a 24-hour recall basis, that would seem to knock out any Burgess deal unless another catcher is involved. It doesn't seem likely the Reds would leave themselves with only Ed Bailey and bonus player Al Silvera as catchers.

General Manager Gabe Paul says he still hopes to do some trading. And he indicated he's willing to sacrifice some of the Redleg power if he could get the right kind of a pitcher.

Nashua Seeking Purse Record

NEW YORK, Pa. — Nashua will go after Citation's all-time money-winning record in the Camden Handicap Saturday.

Trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons said yesterday that he was satisfied with the 129-pound impost Nashua will be asked to carry in the $25,000 mile and one-eighth event.

Nashua's earnings to date are $1,077,615, just $8,145 short of Citation's mark. If he wins the Camden Handicap, it will be worth about $20,000 to him.

Gernert To Keep Post With Bosox

DETROIT, Pa. — Boston Red Sox Manager Mike Higgins is making plans to keep outfielder-first baseman Dick Gernert in the lineup when Ted Williams returns.

"One thing is sure—I'll keep Gernert in the lineup as long as he keeps up his terrific hitting," Higgins said Monday as the Sox relaxed before opening a two-game series with Detroit.

In 19 games since taking over Williams' left field post after the big slugger suffered an instep injury, Gernert has slammed eight homers, driven in 20 runs and compiled a .385 batting average.

WHS Trackmen Take Second

Chillicothe Wins; Portsmouth Third

The WHS trackmen met a powerful squad from Chillicothe and a not-so-powerful one from Portsmouth Monday afternoon on the Chillicothe track.

Chillicothe won 11 of the 14 events and the Lions won the other three. Portsmouth's best showing was a pair of seconds.

Final score put Chillicothe in front with 77 points. Washington C. H. piled up 54 points and Portsmouth brought up the rear with 17.

The Lions' wins were Ron Kelley's in the mile, Bob Hunter's in the 220-yard dash and Dan Schlichter's in the shot put.

120-yard high hurdles (16.4 secs.)—Shackford (C), Lee (W), Phillips (C) and Hunter (W), Coy (P) and Foster (W).

180-yard low hurdles (21.5 secs.)—Van Hous (C), Phillips (C), Barnes (P) and Southward (W).

Orioles Take Chance With Ailing Hurlers

BALTIMORE, Pa. — Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles, who sometimes shuffles his playing personnel as frequently as a deck of cards in a gambling casino, yesterday took a chance on two discarded pitchers.

In a move akin to drawing for an inside straight in poker, Richards purchased sore-armed Billy Loes from the Brooklyn Dodgers and veteran Johnny Schmitz from the Boston Red Sox.

Loes, who compiled a 10-4 record with the world champions last year, is only 26. But the eccentric right-hander has been sidelined most of this season with a sore shoulder muscle.

In his only appearance, he gave up six runs and five hits to the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1 1/3 innings. In practice since then observers said he "didn't have a thing." He had a 50-26 record with Brooklyn for five seasons.

Schmitz presents a different problem. His record shows 93 victories and 111 losses over a 12-year major league career. During that stretch, he has played for seven different teams.

The 35-year-old lefthander had a 7-10 record for the last-place Washington Senators last season.

No prices were disclosed, but the Orioles were believed to have paid about $20,000 for Loes and about $15,000 for Schmitz.

New All-Star Tilt Sponsor Is Sought

NEW YORK, Pa. — Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball, said yesterday the Chicago Tribune had decided not to conduct the poll of fans to determine starting teams for the annual All-Star game.

Frick said baseball was anxious to continue selection of the teams by popular vote and plans were underway to set up new machinery for the purpose.

Texas Eastern helps put the do in "do it yourself"

Texas Eastern transports natural gas from the Southwest for use by the National Gypsum Company, makers of Gold Bond insulation, in the production of this packaged, efficient insulating material. Gas-fired curing ovens are now used to give the spun rock wool and resin in Gold Bond insulation the needed body, strength and resilience. National Gypsum changed to natural gas for this curing operation because it is clean, economical and allows critical temperature control. These are some of the reasons why more and more homeowners, too, are changing to natural gas.

TEXAS EASTERN SERVES THE COMPANIES THAT SERVE YOU

Gold Bond insulation, here being packaged for use in the home, has just passed through continuous natural gas-fired curing ovens. Gas is supplied National Gypsum Company's Dover, New Jersey, plant by New Jersey Natural Gas Company, a customer of Texas Eastern.

Tough Game By Lions Lost 1 to 0

Wilmington Slowed By Tight Defense

Still smarting from a 12-1 defeat suffered at the hands of Wilmington High School last Thursday, the Washington C. H. baseball Lions went out to Gardner Park and battled the Hurricane through one of the toughest contests the Clinton County nine has seen all season—only to bow out, 1-0, in the top of the seventh.

It was a tough defeat for the Lions to take, but it vindicated their squad after last Thursday's game. They proved to everyone that they were a ball club to be dealt with, win or lose.

Lions picked up three hits and made only one error in the field, while pitcher Roger Shackelford struck out 13 Hurricane batters. The Hurricane, although winning the game, got only three hits, made two miscues and succeeded in striking out only 11 Lions.

For six long innings the two teams went scoreless and at least twice in that period the Hurricane found the Lions breathing down its neck and on the very edge of scoring. Neither team could make any headway, however, for all of that time.

IN THE FIRST INNING, Frank Merriman got on base, stole second, and was almost to third when he was caught stealing again. Dick Anders made it all the way to third in the same frame when he, John Grooms, and Ron Will found themselves all on base at the same time.

But effort or no effort, it wasn't the Lions' frame. It was in the third that the Hurricane really got its scare. Merriman, fleet-footed down to first on an error, stole second and got to third on a passed ball. It was only as he started down the home stretch that the squeeze play got him and he had to return to the bench.

Wilmington scored their single tally in the seventh, when Bill Goings, pinch-running for the shortstop, came home on a passed ball.

Another valiant Lions attempt in the bottom of the seventh proved futile, and the Hurricane carried home the victory. But it was a different sort of victory than the one they won last week.

Orioles Take Chance With Ailing Hurlers

BALTIMORE, Pa. — Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles, who sometimes shuffles his playing personnel as frequently as a deck of cards in a gambling casino, yesterday took a chance on two discarded pitchers.

In a move akin to drawing for an inside straight in poker, Richards purchased sore arm Billy Loes from the Brooklyn Dodgers and veteran Johnny Schmitz from the Boston Red Sox.

Loes, who compiled a 10-4 record with the world champions last year, is only 26. But the eccentric right-hander has been sidelined most of this season with a sore shoulder muscle.

In his only appearance, he gave up six runs and five hits to the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1 1/3 innings.

In practice since then observers said he "didn't have a thing." He had a 50-26 record with Brooklyn for five seasons.

Schmitz presents a different problem. His record shows 93 victories and 111 losses over a 12-year major league career. During that stretch, he has played for seven different teams.

The 35-year-old left-hander had a 7-10 record for the last-place Washington Senators last season.

No prices were disclosed, but the Orioles were believed to have paid about $20,000 for Loes and about $15,000 for Schmitz.

New All-Star Tilt Sponsor Is Sought

NEW YORK, Pa. — Ford Frick, commissioner of baseball, said yesterday the Chicago Tribune had decided not to conduct the poll of fans to determine starting teams for the annual All-Star game.

Frick said baseball was anxious to continue selection of the teams by popular vote and plans were underway to set up new machinery for the purpose.

Texas Eastern helps put the do in "do it yourself"

Texas Eastern transports natural gas from the Southwest for use by the National Gypsum Company, makers of Gold Bond insulation, in the production of this packaged, efficient insulating material. Gas-fired curing ovens are now used to give the spun rock wool and resin in Gold Bond insulation the needed body, strength and resilience. National Gypsum changed to natural gas for this curing operation because it is clean, economical and allows critical temperature control. These are some of the reasons why more and more homeowners, too, are changing to natural gas.

TEXAS EASTERN SERVES THE COMPANIES THAT SERVE YOU

Gold Bond insulation, here being packaged for use in the home, has just passed through continuous natural gas-fired curing ovens. Gas is supplied National Gypsum Company's Dover, New Jersey, plant by New Jersey Natural Gas Company, a customer of Texas Eastern.

natural gas PIPELINES oil products

Texas Eastern's natural gas pipelines serve the Midwestern, Appalachian and Eastern areas. Soon the Company's oil product pipelines will transport refined oils and liquefied petroleum products from the Gulf Coast to Midwestern markets.

Probate Judge

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that on the 23rd day of April, 1956, there was presented to the Board of Commissioners of the County of Fayette, State of Ohio, a petition signed by all of the adult freeholders residing in the following described territory situated in the County of Fayette and adjacent to the City of Washington (aka Washington C. H.) to-wit:

The following described real estate situated in the State of Ohio, County of Fayette and Township of Union, to-wit: Beginning at a concrete corner post setting in the South boundary line of U. S. Highway No. 33 (Jamestown Pike) Union Township, Fayette County, Ohio at the N. E. corner of 0.83 Acre Tract owned by Weidon and June Kaufman; thence S. 61 deg. 08' E. along the south boundary line of U. S. Route No. 33 a distance of 445.35 feet to a corner post, a corner to Rees and Roszmann; thence S. 29 deg. 13' W. along line between Rees and Roszmann a distance of 264.80 feet to a cross fence line; thence N. 62 deg. 01' W. along a new line and along a field fence line a distance of 442.02 feet to a point, and corner to Roszmann and Kaufman; thence N. 28 deg. 30' E. along line between Roszmann and Kaufman a distance of 371.39 feet to the place of beginning containing 2.736 acres.

The above described real estate being a part of the same premises described in deed dated March 15, 1954 and recorded in Vol. 87, Page 213, Deed Records Fayette County Recorder's Office.

Praying therein that said territory be annexed to the City of Washington, in the manner provided by law and designating the undersigned as the agent in securing such annexation.

The said Board of Commissioners has fixed the 25th day of June, 1956, at 10 o'clock A. M., as the time for hearing said petition at the office of said Commissioners in the courthouse of Fayette County, Ohio.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

AXYDLBAAXR
is LONGFELLOW

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

GETS CLOTHES CLEANER WITH NO WEAR FROM RUBBING

Here's how it works: The Pulsator-Agitator plunges up and down, whips soap and water into a super-cleaning combination. Clothes are always under water.

Still More Frigidaire Features You Want

Rapidry Spin for faster, more economical drying.

Float-Over Washing and Rinsing that automatically gets rid of lint, suds and dirt-laden suds.

Select-O-Dial and Econo-Dial Controls that save water, time, soap and money.

Thousands of swirling currents of hot sudsy water do the whole laundering job. There's no harsh mechanical action, so clothes last infinitely longer.

RUB-FREE Washing multiplies the cleaning power of soaps and detergents, uses far less water and takes far less time than most automatics.

Come see these marvelous new Frigidaire Washers, today.

Trustees Get April Report From Hospital

High Census Of Patients Reported All This Year

The steady stream of patients at the Fayette County Memorial Hospital continues as was shown by the April report submitted to the board of trustees at their regular monthly meeting Monday night.

Miss Christene Evans, administrator, said that there had been patients in beds in the hospital corridors most of the time so far this year owing to the demand for service at the institution.

HER REPORT, received and approved by the board Monday night showed a total of adult and youth admissions for April of 251. In addition there were 47 babies born there in that period.

Other items of interest in the report were that a total of 1631 days of service were given, the highest number of regular patients in any one day of April being 75, the low est for any day being 51. In addition there were 372 out-patients given service, those who do not necessarily require a bed or a room but are either there for X-ray exposures, laboratory examinations or for use of the emergency surgery rooms without having to remain after treatment.

The report showed 58 major operations and 36 minor. The month's total of laboratory examinations was 2536, also 804 X-ray films were made.

THE HOSPITAL laundry turned out 27,697 pieces of laundry and the total number of meals served were 7,547.

Plans in connection with future operation of the institution were discussed by the board members but no positive decisions were made, action on a few improvements awaiting reports by board member committees making investigations.

Attention of board members was also directed to a beautiful new bronze plaque on the walls in the hospital lobby. It carries the Florence Nightingale pledge for nurses and was presented to the institution by the Professional Nurses Association of Fayette County.

Courts

McGaughey Bros. Inc., of Leesdale, Pa., and The Boston Insurance Co. of Boston, Mass., have filed action in common pleas court here against Emmand and Emma Armstrong, route 1, Jeffersonville seeking $1,105.25 damages and costs, growing out of a traffic accident on U. S. 35 some 2 1/2 miles northwest of Washington C. H., on August 22, 1955. Richard Huggard represents the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs claim the defendants were driving over the center line and that due to carelessness and negligence the plaintiff's trailer, which was insured by the Boston Insurance Co., was damaged in the amount of $1,105.25 when defendant's vehicle struck the trailer.

JUDGE IN PORTSMOUTH

Judge John P. Case spent Monday in Portsmouth, to hear a damage action scheduled, but after a jury had been settled, an agreement was reached and the case settled out of court. Judge Case then dismissed the jury and the action was ended.

TO TRANSFER FUND

A petition has been filed in common pleas court by the Board of Trustees of Jasper Township, asking approval of the transfer of $5,000 from the general fund to the road and bridge fund. Prosecutor John S. Bath represents the plaintiff in the action.

At the next meeting, to be held Friday at the Jeff High School, refreshments will be served by Janie Smith, Jerry Smith, Eldon Smith, Judy Smith and Harry Sharrett.

Circus Presents One-Day Stand

Kids Have Big Day At Show On Monday

The circus is all over but the memories now, but for close to 1,000 people here who went out to the big show at the Washington C. H. Speedway Monday, those memories will last a long time.

Mills Brothers' big show, billed as "the world's largest motorized circus," staged two performances here Monday and, from all indications, results were happy indeed.

Happiest of all were the circus fans who journeyed out to see the big show. A dazzling array of animal acts, clown performances, trapeze work, and all the other kaleidoscopic features of any circus, greeted them and sent them away thoroughly entertained.

Members of the Paul H. Hughey Legion Post here, who sponsored the big show, said that crowds at the show weren't as big as they had hoped, but that results were certainly "satisfactory." At the afternoon show, particularly, they said they were really pleased with the turnout.

And no complaints whatsoever had been reported Tuesday about the presence of the show in town. The whole production was an orderly, well-conducted affair. From all appearances, there wasn't a soul in town Tuesday who regretted that the show came.

CHILDREN, released en masse from the city schools and by special permission from the county schools, were reeling with happiness from the big show. Most of them were out for the afternoon show, bulging the crowd to nearly 600, but some came to the evening performance and boosted that audience to about 400.

Among the youngsters at the afternoon show were a flock from the Children's Home on the Devilon Road here. Legionnaires treated them to popcorn and a variety of goodies so that the show would be a real feature for them.

Profit figures were not available Tuesday morning, because too many bills still have to be paid and it'll be hard to tell how much has been made until some estimate is made of how much money that will take. Indications were, however, that the Legion might net about $200 from the show to give to Junior Baseball activities.

And what of the circus itself? Why, it was off again Tuesday morning, somewhere miles away from here on its way to another show. It has only come here Sunday, but already it was gone, swinging along the circuit, ready to face thousands of crowds in thousands of cities, before it swung back here again.

Project Reports At Jaycee Meet

Wider Participation In Road-e-o Sought

"For a short 20-minute test and executing a few normal driving skills some boy and girls can pick up $3,000 for winning the state contest and another $3,000 if they win the national contest," Bill Williams, the chairman of the Teen-age Road-e-o program here, told members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at its regular monthly dinner meeting Monday evening at Anderson's Drive-in Restaurant.

The Road-e-o is sponsored by the Jaycee and Sohio Oil Co. here.

Williams emphasized to the group of 18 Jaycees at the meeting that his committee was trying to get broader participation in the event by boys and girls of the 16-20-year-old group of high school students.

For the contest, the entrants take a written test and then a driving test of their skill in the actual handling of a car.

The first written test, which was held last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium attracted only about a dozen entrants. The Jaycees felt there should be many more than this interested in the Road-e-o—so another written test was scheduled for next Saturday afternoon at the same time and place.

ON SUNDAY, the driving tests are to be held on Main Street, between Paint and Temple Streets. For this, Omar (Jim) Schwartz, the chairman of the judging committee, announced that the judges would be Sheriff Orland Hays, Vaiden Long, chief of the Washington C. H. police, Patrolman R. R. Shelton of the state Highway Patrol and Cecil West of the auxiliary state highway patrol. He pointed out that all four of these officers deal directly with traffic problems every day in the year and are familiar with driving regulations and skills.

The state Road-e-o is to be held at Euclid, near Cleveland, on June 16. One boy and one girl—winners of the competition here—are to take to the state contest.

The national contest, which will bring together the state winners, is to be held in Washington D. C., on Aug. 19.

Students within the age brackets in the high schools at Bloomingburg, Jeffersonville, Good Hope, Madison Mills, New Holland and Washington C. H. are eligible to participate here.

DAVE OGAN, the committee chairman, in his progress report on the comfort station at the park said "there's a lot more finishing up work to be done by us." He then appealed to the Jaycees to volunteer help, saying "we'll need several work crews during the next several weeks." He said the Jaycees would start putting the roof on next Thursday afternoon. If the work crew turns out and if the weather permits.

President Bob Callison announced that the candidates who had been nominated for the new officers would be notified. Under the Jaycee plan, the candidates are all notified first so they can agree to serve before their names are put on the official ballot. The election will not be held until two weeks from now.

Gene Sagar is chairman of the nominating committee. Other members are J. O. Garringer, Richard Willis, Bob Tice and Jim Schwartz.

School Board Meeting Is Set

Date Is Advanced To Thursday Night

The Washington C. H. School Board is to hold its regular meeting next Thursday at 7 P. M. Of official notices of the time and place of the meeting have sent to the five board members, Robert Terhune, the president of the board, said. The other members are William A. Lovell, Charles Pensyl, Elmer Reed and Milbourne Flee.

This is the second time the meeting date has been changed; originally scheduled for next Monday, the regular scheduled meeting date, it was first advanced to next Saturday and then again changed to Thursday.

The date was changed both times, President Terhune said, because some of the board members would be out of the city. He added that "we all felt it was imperative that everyone be there."

While there are several topics slated for discussion, the president said that those at the top of the agenda right now are the building program and salary schedules for teachers.

SALARY schedules from several schools in cities of comparable size and make-up, especially in this area, would be laid out at the Thursday meeting for comparison and guidance when teacher pay is considered here. It was noted that the first casual glance at these schedules indicate the schedule here is under most of the others.

Whether any final action will be taken on any of the major problems that are to come up for discussion is uncertain.

However, it was emphasized that because of the importance of these problems, a full attendance was wanted at the Thursday meeting, this, it was said, was the reason for two changes in the meeting date.

President Terhune said the board was anxious to get out word of the meeting time (in the office of the superintendent) made public so anyone interested could attend it.

C. S. Smith To Attend Pennsylvania RR Meet

C. S. Smith, Pennsylvania Railroad station agent here, will attend a meeting with the railroad's regional officers Thursday.

To be held in Worthington, the event is expected to attract station agents from 24 central and western Ohio cities.

Edmond West Dies In Hospital Here

Edmond West, 89, died at 5:10 P. M. Monday in Memorial Hospital, where he had been a patient for nine days. He had been in failing health for the last 10 weeks.

He had spent most of his life farming near Sabina. Since his retirement ten years ago, he had lived at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Corzatt.

He was a member of Masonic Lodge 324 and of the Wilmington Elks Lodge.

In addition to his daughter, he is survived by a son, Bert West of Columbus; four grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Ollie Nessler of Columbus and Mrs. Zylpha Stoner of Washington, D. C.

Funeral services will be held at the Littleton Funeral Home in Sabina at 2 P. M. Thursday, with Rev. C. A. Arthur of Leeburg in charge. Burial will be in the Sabina Cemetery.

Friends may call after noon Wednesday at the funeral home.

Four out of five aged U. S. people live in cities and towns.

Marion School Graduation Set

Ceremonies Friday At Regular PTO Meet

Promotion exercises for the eighth graders at the Marion School will be held Friday night at 8 P. M. in the school auditorium, in connection with a regular Parent-Teacher Organization meeting.

Although the PTO ordinarily meets on Thursday evening, it will set its meeting date a day later in order to coordinate with the graduation.

Charles Purdon will deliver the welcome for the class, and Raymond Palmer the farewell. Eugene O'Call, the will by Thomas Trimmer, the class poem by Patricia Wilson and the prophecy by Shirley Hopper. All the members of the class will join in some group singing at the program.

AFTER the program, the eighth graders will be the guests of honor at a reception in the school. They will be seated at a special table for refreshments.

Each PTO family attending the meeting has been asked to contribute a cake to the festivities.

A short business meeting will be held by the PTO prior to the exercises.

Eldon Whiteside, principal of the school, will conduct the graduation ceremonies. Mrs. Richard Snyder and Mrs. Alvin Witsel are in charge of the PTO social committee working on the affair.

Wider Participation In Road-e-o Sought

"For a short 20-minute test and executing a few normal driving skills some boy and girls can pick up $3,000 for winning the state contest and another $3,000 if they win the national contest," Bill Williams, the chairman of the Teen-age Road-e-o program here, told members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at its regular monthly dinner meeting Monday evening at Anderson's Drive-in Restaurant.

The Road-e-o is sponsored by the Jaycee and Sohio Oil Co. here.

Williams emphasized to the group of 18 Jaycees at the meeting that his committee was trying to get broader participation in the event by boys and girls of the 16-20-year-old group of high school students.

For the contest, the entrants take a written test and then a driving test of their skill in the actual handling of a car.

The first written test, which was held last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Dayton Power & Light Co. auditorium attracted only about a dozen entrants. The Jaycees felt there should be many more than this interested in the Road-e-o—so another written test was scheduled for next Saturday afternoon at the same time and place.

ON SUNDAY, the driving tests are to be held on Main Street, between Paint and Temple Streets. For this, Omar (Jim) Schwartz, the chairman of the judging committee, announced that the judges would be Sheriff Orland Hays, Vaiden Long, chief of the Washington C. H. police, Patrolman R. R. Shelton of the state Highway Patrol and Cecil West of the auxiliary state highway patrol. He pointed out that all four of these officers deal directly with traffic problems every day in the year and are familiar with driving regulations and skills.

The state Road-e-o is to be held at Euclid, near Cleveland, on June 16. One boy and one girl—winners of the competition here—are to go to the state contest.

The national contest, which will bring together the state winners, is to be held in Washington D. C., on Aug. 19.

Students within the age brackets in the high schools at Bloomingburg, Jeffersonville, Good Hope, Madison Mills, New Holland and Washington C. H. are eligible to participate here.

DAVE OGAN, the committee chairman, in his progress report on the comfort station at the park, said "there's a lot more finishing up work to be done by us." He then appealed to the Jaycees to volunteer help, saying "we'll need several work crews during the next several weeks." He said the Jaycees would start putting the roof on next Thursday afternoon. If the work crew turns out and if the weather permits.

President Bob Callison announced that the candidates who had been nominated for the new officers would be notified. Under the Jaycee plan, the candidates are all notified first so they can agree to serve before their names are put on the official ballot. The election will not be held until two weeks from now.

Gene Sagar is chairman of the nominating committee. Other members are J. O. Garringer, Richard Willis, Bob Tice and Jim Schwartz.

Reds, Nationalists Launch New Duel

TAIPEI, Formosa (P) — Guns blazed in the Amoy-Quemoy area today in the heaviest action between Chinese Nationalists and Communists in two weeks.

The Nationalist Defense Ministry said the Reds fired 638 shells at the two offshore islands of Quemoy and Little Quemoy during a three-hour period. Volume of the counterfire was not disclosed.

Marion School Graduation Set

Ceremonies Friday At Regular PTO Meet

Promotion exercises for the eighth graders at the Marion School will be held Friday night at 8 P. M. in the school auditorium, in connection with a regular Parent-Teacher Organization meeting.

Although the PTO ordinarily meets on Thursday evening, it will set its meeting date a day later in order to coordinate with the graduation.

Charles Purdom will deliver the welcome for the class, and Raymond Palmer the farewell. The class history will be read by Eugene O'Call, the will by Thomas Trimmer, the class poem by Patricia Wilson and the prophecy by Shirley Hopper. All the members of the class will join in some group singing at the program.

AFTER the program, the eighth graders will be the guests of honor at a reception in the school. They will be seated at a special table for refreshments.

Each PTO family attending the meeting has been asked to contribute a cake to the festivities.

A short business meeting will be held by the PTO prior to the exercises.

Eldon Whiteside, principal of the school, will conduct the graduation ceremonies. Mrs. Richard Snyder and Mrs. Alvin Writsel are in charge of the PTO social committee working on the affair.
